Fun Facts

- Dolly Parton started the Imagination Library in Tennessee in 1995.
- Each month children in the program get a free book delivered by mail.
- The program has been in Eldora since 2007 delivering over 11,000 books.
- The program is free to all Eldora children under age 5 regardless of income.
- Currently 104 children are in the program.
- No tax dollars are used to fund the program.
- Dolly Parton's Foundation pays for much of the program, but the community pays about $25 per year for each child.
